CITY IN BRIEF.

Mr. Wilson, of Salem, was yesterday sworn in as a director of the Southern Prison.

There were ten cases at the Station-house last night at roll call, all of them being plain drunks.

A social will be given by the Third and Sixth Christian churches to-night at the residence of George Snider.

C. F. Moffitt, of Thorntown, is said to be the owner of a colt, now two days old, that has a pronounced human head.

Under the direction of the Plymouth Institute a kindergarten school will be opened next week at Plymouth Church.

A number of confidence men are in the city. They are trying to swindle merchants by claiming a mistake in making change.

A. A. McKain, of this city, will erect the Indiana Soldiers' monument at Gettysburg, the contract having been awarded to him.

Rev. Raynor, charged of marrying Henry Patton and the Davis woman, has been granted a continuance till to-morrow week.

Police Commissioner Morrison is in Chicago inspecting the police telegraph and telephone system with a view to introducing it here.

Two fire cisterns are to be built as soon as possible at the corner of Walcott and Carter and St. Clair and Dorman streets, each of 2,000 barrels capacity.

The residence of Mrs. Murphy, corner of Leola and Deloss streets, was struck by lightning night before last, the chimney being wrecked and the roof partially torn up.

Ed Gardner, of 137 Davidson street, was stopped by two highwaymen on East Ohio street late last night, who rifled his pockets and secured all of the money he had—thirty cents.

A defect in the roadway at the corner of Meridian and Seventh streets caused a phaeton to be partially overturned Sunday morning and the occupant, a lady, was thrown out and quite seriously hurt.

Articles of association of the Barnett and Elliott Shoe Company, of this city, have been filed with the Secretary of State. The capital stock is $6,000 and D. W. Barnett, S. R. Elliott and J. R. Newton are the directors.

Dick Roberts, George Williams and James Coleman were arrested at the Union Depot last night as pickpockets. They are accused of having robbed John Jamison, of Decatur, Ill., of $45. The robbery was committed on the 1, B. and W.

The weather is pretty warm to indulge in violent exercise, but, notwithstanding this fact, there will be a two-and-a-half mile race at Virgin Avenue Park tonight for the championship and a gold medal. Some fast skaters will participate.

The North Indianapolis M. E. Church. The Methodist Church of North Indianapolis was dedicated Sunday. This church is a new organization and mainly composed of young folks, employed in the factories at that point. The structure was erected this spring, and an indebtedness of $925 had been created above the funds on hand. Rev. Sampson Tinsler, presiding elder, Dr. Gillette, Dr. Kendrick, Rev. Amos Harvey and Rev. S. F. Tinsler, the pastor of the charge, were present. The dedicatory sermon was preached by the presiding elder, and following this a collection was taken up to meet the indebtedness of the association, which resulted in contributions amounting to $600, more than enough to discharge all liabilities. The new church starts out with the most flattering prospects of success and is destined to prove a tremendous power for good in the village and surrounding neighborhood.

An Embewzler Sentenced. John T. Woodward, who was convicted of embezzling $1,200 belonging to a man named Miller, was yesterday sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, the Court overruling the motion for a new trial. Woodward declared that he had an interest in the ticket on which the money was drawn, and claimed that he had been forced to trial before he was ready. The probability is that if the State had waited for John to get "ready," the trial would not have taken place at all. An appeal has been taken to the Supreme Court.

The May Meeting. The annual meeting of the Action Camp-meeting Association will be held to-morrow at the camp-ground. The train will leave the depot at 11:15 o'clock, and return at 4 in the evening. Holders of tents and those who expect to occupy tents or cottages, are requested to attend, as business of importance is to be transacted. A number of families are already moving to the ground for the summer, many of them saying it is cheaper than to stay in the city, and preferable to going to the Northern lakes for the season.

Uncle Sam's Court. In the Federal Court yesterday Joseph J. Campbell, until recently Assistant Postmaster at Goldsmith, indicted for detaining and delaying registered letters, withdrew his plea of not guilty, and was fined $250 and costs. William Boorer, of Dearborn County, entered a plea of guilty to passing counterfeit money. The case of James Roberts, of this city, charged with passing counterfeit money, was tried yesterday and argued before the jury.

Semi-Annual Apportionment of School Revenue. The Superintendent of Public Instruction made the half-yearly apportionment of the State's school revenue for tuition, yesterday, as required by law. The returns of the apportionment show 72,171 persons of school age in the State. The amount apportioned to each is $1.42, which with $10.00 to the Normal School, makes the total amount apportioned $1,061,422.82.

The Methodist Ministers. The Methodist ministers of the city held their regular meeting yesterday and listened to a paper on "Our New American Race and Its Characteristics," read by Dr. McConnell, and discussed at length by several ministers present. Dr. Alabaster gave a short talk on "Inside Life in Cuba" in addition to the regular programme. "The Ethics of Indelicacy" will be discussed at the next meeting.

Benefit Concert. Miss Anna Lutz's benefit concert takes place this evening at Pfaffin's Music Hall. A splendid programme has been prepared, comprising such well known artists as Mrs. John C. New, Professor McAvoy, Professor Attick Smith, Bertie Feibleman, Miss Jessie Meek, Dora Messing, Florence Bamberger, Miss Ida Scott, Andrew Smith, the Arion Trio and Miss Lutz.

A Missing Boy. Frank Dille, a lad whose parents reside at 74 South Mississippi street, was missing from his home last night, and the police were notified to be on the lookout for him. When last seen he had on a Blaine and Logan cap.
